

FORESTS TODAY & FOREVER

2020 Annual Report

Reimagining our Programs

We responded to the COVID-19 pandemic by transitioning our forestry education programs for engagement via virtual learning. Forest Field Days is now a fully on-line and interactive curriculum, and our career program is offered live to high school classes.

505 STUDENTS REACHED!

Providing New Learning Opportunities

We developed new opportunities for children to learn in the woods while taking precautions for health and safety. We hosted a family forest field day and provided programming to youth at a working tree farm.

50 YOUTH ENGAGED!

Partnering to Grow our Reach

We partnered with other organizations to provide programs that teach the public about forest management - Oregon Logging Conference School Tours, a public forest tour, summer camp programs, and a video contest.
